

I am disabled and it is difficult for me to get to the phone at times, therefore it is important to have the No Call List active! Especially since many calls are computer generated, there isn't even anyone on the other end of the phone (just blank air), the answering machine recognizes it as a missed call and therefore I have no idea who called. Please keep the No Call List active.